

EARTHQUAKE SHOCKS

Several of Them Felt Along the Atlantic Coast.

MOST SEVERE IN BROOKLYN.

Houses Shook Perceptibly, Window Panes Were Broken and Pictures and Other Movables Were Torn From Their Fastenings—People Awakened From Their Stumbers and Badly Terrified.

BROOKLYN, Sept. 2.—Three distinct earthquake shocks were felt by the residents of Brooklyn about 6 o'clock Sunday morning. No damage to life or property is reported from any section of the city. The districts of East New York and South Brooklyn received the greatest shock, but the rumblings were distinctly felt in other sections of the city.

Contradictory reports are given as to the severity of the shocks. The first shock which was felt at 6 o'clock, was followed by a rumbling noise like distant thunder. This was followed by two other slighter shocks, which according to most of the reports died away in a low grating noise.

Superintendent of Police William J. McKeivie telephoned to the police headquarters from his Greene avenue residence to the effect that he had been awakened from a sound sleep by the earthquake. He said that the house oscillated, and that the bed on which he was sleeping moved perceptibly.

Deputy Commissioner of Police Crosby, who was stopping at Coney Island, also telephoned to headquarters that the shock had been pretty severe in that section of Brooklyn. He described it as a low, rumbling noise and added that many houses had been shaken, all of the inhabitants being aroused from their sleep.

James Jackson, a colored watchman at the municipal building, said that the residents of the Twenty-fifth ward were startled by three shocks in rapid succession followed by a rumbling noise. The house trembled, and many pictures and other ornaments hanging on the walls were thrown to the floor.

Two conductors on the Atlantic avenue railroad, who were dining in a restaurant on Washington street, reported that they felt the earthquake shock. The building trembled perceptibly, while the plates and other dishes on the table were moved. They said the shock was like the effects of a distant explosion.

At many hotels the guests were so frightened by the vibrations that they hurried into the hallways to find out the cause of the trouble. The guests at the Pierpont House were very much alarmed and many of them went down stairs and asked the night clerk what had happened. They thought an explosion must have occurred in the hotel.

Throughout New Jersey.

JERSEY CITY, Sept. 2.—New Jersey felt the force of the earthquake, the tremor extending throughout the northern part, while the southern section appears to have escaped entirely. The shock came between 6:33 and 6:35 a. m. The towns along the ocean shore report little disturbance in consequence of the earthquake.

Official Time in New York.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—According to Weather Forecaster Dunn, the earthquake reached this city at 6:11 Sunday morning. The shock was light and lasted for 10 seconds. It traveled from south to north, but comparatively few persons in the city noticed the disturbance.

Little Delaware Shaken.

WILMINGTON, Del., Sept. 2.—Quite a perceptible shock of earthquake was felt in this city about half past 6 Sunday morning. The vibration lasted for several seconds, and was observed in every section of the town. No damage has been reported.

Felt in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 2.—An earthquake shock was felt in this city and environs about 6 o'clock Sunday morning. Houses shook perceptibly, window panes were broken and pictures and other movables were torn from their fastenings.

Lasted Three Seconds at Sandy Hook.

SANDY HOOK, N. Y., Sept. 2.—A shock, apparently that of an earthquake, lasting three seconds, was felt about 6:08 a. m. Sunday.

YANKEE DOODLE IS NO MORE.

Steam Racing Yacht Destroyed by Fire on the Schuylkill River.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 2.—The steam racing yacht Yankee Doodle, owned by McBride Brothers of this city, was damaged by fire yesterday to such an extent as to incapacitate her for service hereafter. The Messrs. McBride, with a party of 12 friends, had steamed down the Schuylkill river on a pleasure trip. Near the foot of the city a quantity of oil escaped from the boat's tank, and became ignited. The party was safely landed, but the boat's machinery was damaged to the extent of $3,000, and she was otherwise injured.

A similar yacht of the same name and ownership was destroyed by the bursting of her boilers while racing on the Schuylkill on July 4, 1892. A mile record of 1 minute and 40 seconds was claimed for the yacht burned yesterday. She was recently backed for a race on Long Island sound with the Rex, Norwood and Vamoose, but on her way over ran into a canal boat near Princeton, and knocking a hole in her bottom, had to forfeit the race.

SUGAR PRODUCTION STOPPED.

Cuban Insurgents Will Drive Thousands of Laborers to Revolt.

LONDON, Sept. 2.—The Havana correspondent of The Times says: Señor Torralbas, the holder of an important judicial post in Puerto Principe, has been dismissed from the public service for complicity in the rebellion.

The insurgents have given notice throughout the provinces of Santa Clara and Matanzas forbidding the planters to make sugar during the coming season, in accordance with the orders which have been received from the revolutionary committee in New York, the penalty for refusal to stop work being the destruction of the property and the burning of the sugar cane. Unless the rebels are expelled from these provinces before November, when the cane is ready for crushing, the situation will become serious, as the planters are unable to sustain the loss of the crop, and the lack of employment will drive thousands of laborers to revolt.

Fifty men and a quantity of arms have been landed at Cardenas from the Canadian steamer Elliott, from New York.

It is reported that the provincial government has proclaimed a gathering of insurgent forces at Najasa, in Puerto Principe.

The Spanish residents in Havana have decided to form a volunteer guard to defend the city in case of need.

Cubans Are Held.

WILMINGTON, Del., Sept. 2.—At the hearing of the 20 Cubans arrested at Penn's Grove, argument was made by the attorneys for both sides. This lasted for two hours, and at its conclusion Commissioner McAllister held the accused in $300 bail each for court, and the authorities were kept busy several hours making out bail bonds for the prisoners. Many prominent Cubans from Philadelphia and elsewhere were present. There was no trouble in securing bonds.

WOMAN BRUTALLY BEATEN.

Two Inmates of an Insane Prison Murderously Assault an Attendant.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Sept. 2.—The facts about a murderous assault committed by Mrs. Lizzie Halliday, the Monticello murderess, on Miss Kate Ward, an attendant at the Mattenew state asylum for insane criminals, where Mrs. Halliday is confined, on Friday last, have just leaked out. Mrs. Halliday was assisted in her assault on the attendant by Jane Shannon, another convict patient, who was committed to the asylum for insane criminals from St. Lawrence county about three years ago, and who is considered the most dangerous of the female patients of the institution.

The assault was the result of a grudge which Mrs. Halliday had held against the attendant. Miss Ward went into the bathroom and was seized by the murderess and thrown to the floor. Mrs. Shannon then jumped on Miss Ward's prostrate form, while Mrs. Halliday crumpled the towel which she had brought to Miss Ward, into the latter's mouth. Then the two crazy and revengeful women kicked and pounded the attendant. Mrs. Halliday tearing her hair and scratching her face with her finger nails. The attendant, when help reached her, was unconscious, and it was thought that she would die. She has since rallied, however, and though bruised badly, is able to resume her duties. Mrs. Halliday and Mrs. Shannon have been placed in solitary confinement.

DEATH OF RICHARD H. SYLVESTER.

He Was One of the Best Known Journalists in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—Major Richard H. Sylvester, the oldest and one of the best known journalists in Washington, died here yesterday. Major Sylvester had been identified with the Washington Post as an editorial writer since its foundation in 1879, and up to the year before his death had scarcely missed a day from his desk for any cause. As a political writer he was looked upon by his contemporaries as an authority without partisanship or prejudice. A wife and four children survive him.

Major Sylvester was quiet and even gentle in his bearing, being of a genial disposition and was thoroughly skilled in all the branches of his profession. The deceased was born in New Hampshire in 1830, was a graduate in law and afterward engaged in newspaper work in Iowa and St. Louis, and later in Washington.

OBSTRUCTIONS ON THE TRACK.

Passenger Train Saved From a Wreck by Being Held Back Time.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Sept. 2.—Shortly after midnight an attempt was made to wreck the Lehigh Valley passenger train No. 2, bound west. The attempt was made at Tomkins switch, where the line skirts the banks of the Susquehanna river, and had it succeeded, the train, consisting of five well filled sleepers, three day coaches and two baggage cars, would have plunged down a 20-foot embankment into the river.

Fortunately the train was a half hour behind time, when a track walker discovered a heap of timber, ties and boulders on the track and flagged the train, which was approaching at high speed.

Walked Out of Prison.

DENVER, Sept. 2.—Henry Tyson seven years ago murdered John King in this city. He has spent three of those years in solitary confinement in Kansas City, has been sentenced to hang three times, and was once within two days of execution. Saturday he was declared free on a legal technicality and walked out of prison.

BIG STORM IN MEXICO

It Swept the Northern Part of the Territory.

GREAT DAMAGE HAS BEEN DONE.

Scarcely Anything Definite Can Be Learned as the Railroad Officials Are Very Reluctant—Enough Is Known, However, to State That the Storm Is the Worst in the History of That Country.

LAREDO, Tex., Sept. 2.—Information regarding the fearful storm of Friday raging from Corpus Christi, Tex., and across the border several hundred miles into Mexico, is very meager. Scarcely anything definite can be learned, as the railroad officials are very reticent. Enough is known, however, to state that the storm is the worst in the history of northern Mexico.

First reports were to the effect that the telegraph wires and railway track would be in working condition on Saturday, but advices now indicate that wires to the City of Mexico over the Mexican National railway will not be serviceable until tomorrow, and unofficial sources would indicate the abandonment of through trains until the latter part of the week.

Five miles of Mexican National telegraph wires are down with numerous bridges washed away. In many places the Mexican National roadbed is washed out for several hundred yards. At one point 300 yards of the track was washed into a small river and twisted into all sorts of shapes.

It is reported that one passenger train is stranded near Salome Beteo, a small mining camp about a hundred miles from Laredo, the embankment being washed out at the head and the rear end of the train. There are no reports of loss of life or homes.

There is no telling what developments will bring to light. The Mexican government wires are equally as badly damaged, but communication with the City of Mexico is established by way of Eagle Pass.

ONE MAN DROWNED.

Rivalry of Two Lines Causes a Fatality at Duluth.

DULUTH, Sept. 2.—For some months past there has been intense rivalry between the Luman and Singer tug lines at this port, and each has made the most of every opportunity to secure towns. Yesterday this rivalry culminated in a fatality.

The tug Medinah of the Singer line was running alongside the steamer Joliet as the latter was passing up the bay, and was about to take her place, when the Pathfinder of the Luman line cut across the bows of the steamer and the Medinah without signaling. A collision at once occurred. The Medinah struck the Pathfinder and she rolled over like a log. Her crew jumped and all but Fireman Jacob Wassar were saved, being picked up by a passing ferry.

The fireman jumped on the side toward which the tug was rolling and was carried down under her, the body being subsequently recovered. The Pathfinder turned completely over and lies in 14 feet of water with her smokestack just protruding above water. Captain Liezel of the Medinah and Captain Brown of the Pathfinder were arrested and looked up.

SECOND TIME SUCCESSFUL.

Carbolic Acid Accomplishes What a Revolver Failed to Do.

BUFFALO, Sept. 2.—R. T. Allen, the Omaha musician, who attempted to commit suicide by shooting himself on a Central train on the way from the east last Friday morning, was entirely successful in killing himself yesterday. He was a patient at the Fitch hospital, where he had been taken to have his bullet wound dressed, and yesterday got hold of a bottle of carbolic acid and took a large dose, dying in an hour. When discovered he was unconscious, and efforts to resuscitate him were unavailing.

Allen has a family whose daughter is studying music in New York, and whose son is employed in the composing room of a New York paper. He would have inherited large estates in Belfast, Ireland, upon the death of his father, but grew tired of waiting for the inheritance and weary of life. His body is at the morgue awaiting the coming of his relatives.

EXHUMED PIETZEL'S BODY.

Physicians Expect to Identify the Dead Man by His Teeth.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 2.—The body of Benjamin F. Pietzel, the supposed victim of H. H. Holmes, was taken from its grave in the Mechanics' cemetery here Saturday afternoon by Dr. Ridebotham, the coroner's physician.

The object of the physician was to secure the skull of the murdered man. It is understood that this gruesome relic of crime is to be used to identify the dead man by means of his teeth, and it is surmised that Mrs. Pietzel will probably be called upon to testify in this direction.

Conflicting Reports From Colombia.

COLOMBIA, Sept. 2.—Authentic information is received here that General Alfaro's troops have taken Quito. General Sarasti, who led the government forces, fled to the American legation and Salazar fled to the Peruvian legation. President Caro gives public assurance that Colombia is in a tranquil state, and late reports of an uprising are denied.

FIRE IN BUFFALO.

The Academy of Music and Other Valuable Property Destroyed.

BUFFALO, Sept. 2.—The Academy of Music, the oldest playhouse in the city, burned at 2 o'clock Sunday morning. The fire is supposed to have started under the stairway and smoldered for some time before the fire was discovered. A still alarm was sent in at 1:30, but the chemical men found the smoke too dense to locate the fire and a fire box was pulled. The firemen broke their way into the ground floor and groped about for half an hour to find the seat of the fire, playing several streams meanwhile with no avail.

About 2 o'clock the flames burst forth in the Comstock store and the progress of the fire from this time was rapid. In a few minutes it had leaped through the floor of the stage, mounted the flies and enveloped the scenery. The fire ate its way through the roof at the rear, but did not advance to the front of the house.

The liquor store of P. C. Millet and the offices above, which faced on Main street, were not damaged except by smoke and water. The Comstock store on the other side of the Main street entrance, however, was practically gutted and the loss in furs will be heavy, about $10,000.

The two small stores of the William Vaughn & Company and Jacob Fried, on the Washington street side, were gutted.

The loss to the theater building is perhaps $75,000. The loss of the contents is more lamentable, if not as costly, for the Academy stage was a storehouse of dramatic history for the past 40 years. Several theatrical people lose wardrobes, properties and scenery that had been stored there. The Academy was erected in 1852 by Henry T. Meech, who died in 1870, since when it has been managed continuously by his sons, John H. and Henry L. Meech.

The theater was originally known as the Metropolitan, but the sons changed its name to the Academy of Music. They also remodeled the house in 1883. They were owners of the property until a year ago, when business reverses compelled them to sell it under foreclosure proceedings. It was bought in by Attorney Moot for a syndicate of the larger creditors and the house was being managed by the Meechs for the benefit of the creditors and had just opened its season, this last two weeks.

The property is worth about $250,000 and was heavily mortgaged. The insurance rates were high and not half enough was placed to reimburse the mortgages. It is unlikely that the building will be rebuilt as a theater, as its location is too far down town to make it desirable.

THE WATER WAS TOO SHALLOW.

An Expert Swimmer and Diver Has His Neck Broken.

CHICAGO, Sept. 2.—William Kline had his neck broken yesterday afternoon in a peculiar manner. He was an expert swimmer and had taken his wife to the lake to see him do some fancy swimming and diving. Donning his bathing costume he ran to the edge of the embankment where the water was about seven feet below, and jumping into the air, came down head first into the lake.

The water was but two feet deep and his head struck the bottom with terrific force. He managed to gain his feet, but as he did so his head fell to one side and a second later he was lying on his face in the water. Mrs. Kline screamed for help and in a short time the man was brought to the shore. Then it was found that his neck had been broken and that life was extinct.

AN ILLINOIS MAN'S CRIME.

He Shoots His Wife and Stepdaughter, the Latter Fatally.

DECATUR, Ill., Sept. 2.—George P. Allen yesterday shot his wife and stepdaughter, Minnie Deffenbaugh. The latter's wound is fatal. The wife will recover. Allen sat on the porch after the shooting and kept his neighbors off with a revolver for an hour. Finally he called for tobacco and a match. They were taken to him and as he lighted his pipe he was overpowered.

He is now in jail. He refuses to say why he tried to kill the women. Friends who know him and who say he is industrious and peaceable, say he was overheated last week. They think he is now insane. He moved from East St. Louis six months ago.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Sept. 2.—The John Hanley Manufacturing company of this city has made an assignment. It was one of the largest tent, awning and upholstery furniture companies in the state, with branches at Louisville and Indianapolis. Inability to meet a Boston claim led to the assignment. The assets are two to one of liabilities.

The Mosquitoes Escaped.

MASCOUTAH, Ill., Sept. 2.—Henry Schuetz, a farmer, determined to smoke out the mosquitoes by burning dampened paper. There was a big explosion and the farmer was badly injured. He is disfigured for life and may lose his eyesight.

A Household Treasure.

D. W. Fuller, of Canajoharie, N. Y., says that he always keeps Dr. King's New Discovery in the house and his family has always found the very best results follow its use; that he would not be without it, if procurable. G. A. Dykeman, druggist, Catskill, N. Y., says that Dr. King's New Discovery is undoubtedly the best cough remedy; that he has used it in his family for eight years, and it has never failed to do all that is claimed for it. Why not try a remedy so long tried and tested? Trial bottles free at J. James Wood's drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.

OUTRAGES IN CHINA.

More Definite Details of the Crimes Perpetrated.

WORSE THAN WAS REPORTED.

The Uprising Was General Over a Great Part of Western China—Extreme Hardships Endured by the Missionaries While Fleeing For Their Lives—Reports Sent to The Baptist Missionary Magazine.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—Reports of the outrages upon missionaries in China have come from members of the American Baptist missionary union to the Baptist Missionary Magazine, which show that the uprisings were more general than had been told before. In the last week of May and the first of June all the five missionary stations in western China were looted by mobs, and 146 missionaries—men, women and children—were driven away, escaping only with their lives. In the province of Sze-Chuan, the largest in the empire, there were many small stations scattered over the valley of the upper Yangtze river. Most of the missionaries had gone to the field in the last five years.

While the authorities seem to have tried, in some instances, to protect the mission; the only thing they were able to render was to help them to escape. The missionaries fled hundreds of miles down the river, traveling on rafts and in houseboats, hardly carrying so much as a change of clothing, and reaching places of safety only after two weeks of hardship.

In Chentub, the capital of the province of Sze-Chuan, a placard was posted on the 25th of May asserting that the "foreign barbarians" were hiring evil characters to steal small children for them. The next day a mob of several thousand tore down the Canadian Methodist mission and the property of the two other Protestant and Catholic buildings. The missionaries appealed to the magistrate of the city, but he told them he was powerless to help them. With the aid of some friendly natives, they effected their escape. Then the cry went up: "The time has come to turn all the missionaries out of Sze-Chuan." A part of the mob divided into smaller parties, and took the various roads out of town, en route for other mission centers. In all cities the most inflammatory placards were posted on the walls. Riots immediately followed.

The Baptist missionaries believe the riots were incited by members of the official class. They kept in the background, however, and to all appearances, the students were at the bottom of the mischief. They published a placard fixing a date for the destruction of the missionary property at Snichau-fu, and for killing the magistrate, who was suspected of desiring to protect foreigners.

In most cases the missionaries, while their property was being destroyed, left the cities and hid in the neighborhood, awaiting an opportunity to escape. They had native friends who helped them to secure boats and to put the ladies and children aboard. At Suichau-fu, Messrs. Warner and Wellwood, and Dr. Finch got their valuable papers and silver out of the town, and secreted them. Here, as everywhere, the trouble came like a thunderclap out of a clear sky. Sunday's services were well attended, quiet and very impressive, and three candidates were baptized by immersion. On Monday, June 5, the city was flooded with placards.

The largest party, which numbered 65, was crowded for 11 days in little houseboats, suffering terribly, and but for the fact that they had money enough to pay the exorbitant prices asked them for everything, would have perished. There are many stories of individual escapes, but they are much alike in their main feature.

The Outrages Continue.

LONDON, Sept. 2.—The Times' correspondent at Shanghai says Chinese Christians are being brutally harried near Hing-Hwa, province of Fo-Kien. Houses have been burned and property and cattle lifted. One person was fatally wounded. The magistrate refused to interfere, although he was five times requested to do so. He had published an ambiguous proclamation referring to the Ku-Cheng massacre and inciting a rising against the Christians. Worse troubles are expected.

FATAL QUARREL.

A Convict Sentenced For Murder Kills Another Prisoner.

CHATTANOOGA, Sept. 2.—In a quarrel at the mining camp of the state convicts at Brushy Mountain mines, George Walker was Saturday killed by W. T. Garrett, who becomes doubly a murderer, as he was serving a sentence of 21 years for the slaying here of Rev. Sam Rowland. After striking him down he jumped on Walker's prostrate form and beat him with a stone.

Garrett is a native of Jamaica, of mixed Spanish and negro origin, and well educated. For years after the crime he wandered in Europe and America, but was at last betrayed to the authorities in Cincinnati by a companion. Garrett was a great mischief maker among the prisoners.

Fatal Saloon Quarrel.

STURBEVILLE, O., Sept. 2.—Thomas Barkis, aged 28, was stabbed to death as the result of a saloon quarrel. William Gary, Frank Rossner and John Driscoll were the other parties to the quarrel and Rossner used a large knife on Barkis. All are under arrest.

GENERAL HARDIN doesn't believe in jumping on a man when he's down. He has been easy on Billy O. Bradley since Friday.

It didn't take General Hardin very long to demolish that idol of Kentucky Republicans—the once great and only Colonel Bradley.

GENERAL HARDIN wanted forty debates with Colonel Bradley. The latter said twelve would be enough. Twelve proved more than enough. Hardin knocked him out in five rounds.

BRADLEY, the bamboozler, soon found out that he was a miserable failure as long as some good Democrat was present to expose his falsehoods. He refuses to meet General Hardin anymore. But the Chairman of the Democratic Campaign Committee has served notice that some good Democrat will be on hand to answer him wherever he speaks.

How HAVE the mighty fallen! Kentucky Republicans have been blowing themselves for years that Democrats were afraid to meet the windy Billie Bradley. They will subside now. Bradley met Hardin in five joint debates, and on Friday canceled his agreement to meet him at seven other points. His reason for this was some alleged "discourtesy" shown him at Eminence on Friday. If his statement were true, that would be no excuse for canceling his dates elsewhere. The simple truth is, Bradley wants to get out by himself so that he can bamboozle and mislead his hearers. But he may as well quit. Kentuckians won't listen to a man who is afraid to face his opponent.

"Business is good and I am in good spirits" said President Ingalls, the railway magnate, in a talk at Cincinnati this week. "The thing that worries me is where the Big Four and C. and O. are going to get enough freight cars to handle the business in sight. The corn crop in the West is of tremendous proportions, and the railroads will get the benefit. I am afraid the farmer will not be so lucky, as the price of corn will be rather low. A commission man told me the other day that England will take all the corn that she can get at 50 cents a bushel, and he had contracted for a million bushels a month for the next few months. He said that he would buy the corn in the West at 15 cents a bushel. There will be much grain to move this fall, and that is good for the railroads."
